

Dr. (H.C) Jenet Foo Sieo Yin

Honorary Doctorate in Leadership & Innovation

Jenet Foo Sieo Yin is a distinguished professional known for her diverse contributions across various sectors including graphic design, beauty pageant organization, and property management. She has established herself as a leader in every field she has ventured into, demonstrating a unique blend of creativity, strategic thinking, and professionalism. Her career, marked by substantial achievements and a commitment to excellence, makes her a notable candidate for an Honorary Doctorate Degree from the Oxford International University & College Committee.

In the realm of property management, Jenet's role as the Director of Sentinel Property has been characterized by her ability to adeptly manage complex operations and maintain high standards of client service. Her leadership and foresight have been instrumental in aligning the company's strategies with industry best practices, fostering strong relationships with clients, investors, and stakeholders. Her tenure at Sentinel Property reflects her exceptional analytical skills, integrity, and commitment to excellence in the property management sector.

Jenet's foray into the world of beauty pageants is equally remarkable. She won the Mrs Malaysia World championship in 2015 and subsequently took on key roles in organizing major pageant events. As the chairlady of the Mrs Malaysia World event in 2016, the host of the Mrs Malaysia Tourism Pageant in 2017, and a key organizer in the International Mrs Tourism Pageant in 2018, Jenet showcased her exceptional organizational skills and attention to detail. Her involvement in these events highlights her ability to manage complex logistics, liaise with diverse stakeholders, and create empowering platforms for women. In 2019, she received the Outstanding Style Icon award at the STYLO Asia Fashion Festival, further cementing her status in the event management industry.

Jenet's graphic design background has played a crucial role in enhancing her professional endeavours. Her Diploma in Graphic Design has enabled her to integrate creative design solutions into her projects, enriching her work in event branding and promotions. This skill set underscores her versatility as a professional capable of merging creative and strategic aspects seamlessly.

In addition to her professional achievements, Jenet has demonstrated a strong commitment to community service and social initiatives. As Vice President of the Lions Clubs of Selangor Empire in 2022 and 2023, she was instrumental in organizing the "Guardian 100 Education Program." This program aimed to empower the next generation by hosting life lecture sessions for primary and secondary school students, focusing on instilling positive energy, excitement for learning, and leading meaningful lives. Jenet's involvement in these initiatives, including an eye care program benefiting 2000 students, underscores her dedication to making a positive impact on society.

Her role in community service and her professional successes reflect her belief in using her skills and resources for the greater good. Jenet's multifaceted career and her commitment to social causes make her an exemplary candidate for an Honorary Doctorate Degree. Her application is supported by her achievements in diverse sectors, her resilience, and her dedication to community service. Jenet Foo Sieo Yin stands as a shining example of excellence and commitment, making her a deserving candidate for recognition by the Oxford International University and College Committee.
